Alexandria Gazette

TUESDAY EVENING, DECEMBER 1.

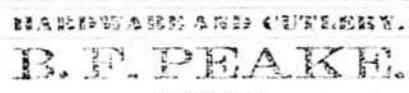

WHO ARE AMERICAN ARISTOCRATS—Twenty years ago this was made evident, that one sold candles and butter, another butchered a fourth cured in a cemetery, another was a contractor on candles, others were merchants and mechanics. They are acquainted with both ends of society, and their children will be after them, though it will not do to say so out loud. For often you find these toiling worms hatch butterflies—and they live about a year. Death brings a division of property, and it brings new masters. The old gent is discharged, the young gen takes revenues and begins to travel toward poverty, which it reaches before death, or his children do if he does not, satirically, though there is a sort of merciful task, it is not hereditary; it is hereditary. The father grabs and grows rich; his children snuff and use the money. The children in turn inherit pride and go shillies to poverty. Next their children, ravaged by fresh pestilence blood and by the smell of the clove, come up again. Thus society, like a tree, draws its sap from the earth, changes into seed and blossoms, spreads them around in great glory, sheds them, to fall to the earth again, to mingle with the soil, and at length to reap in new dress and fresh garniture.

Lion Bitters, Highly recommended to the public for all diseases requiring a certain and efficient Tonic; especially in Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Intestinal Feces, Want of Appetite, Loss of Strength, Lack of Energy, &c. It strengthens the blood, strengthens the muscles, and gives new life to the nerves. To the aged, ladies and children requiring recuperation, this valuable remedy cannot be too highly recommended. It acts like a charm in the digestive organs. A teaspoonful before meals will remove all hysterical symptoms. Try it. Sold by all Druggists.
